

Why Pepper Dog? | Pittsburgh

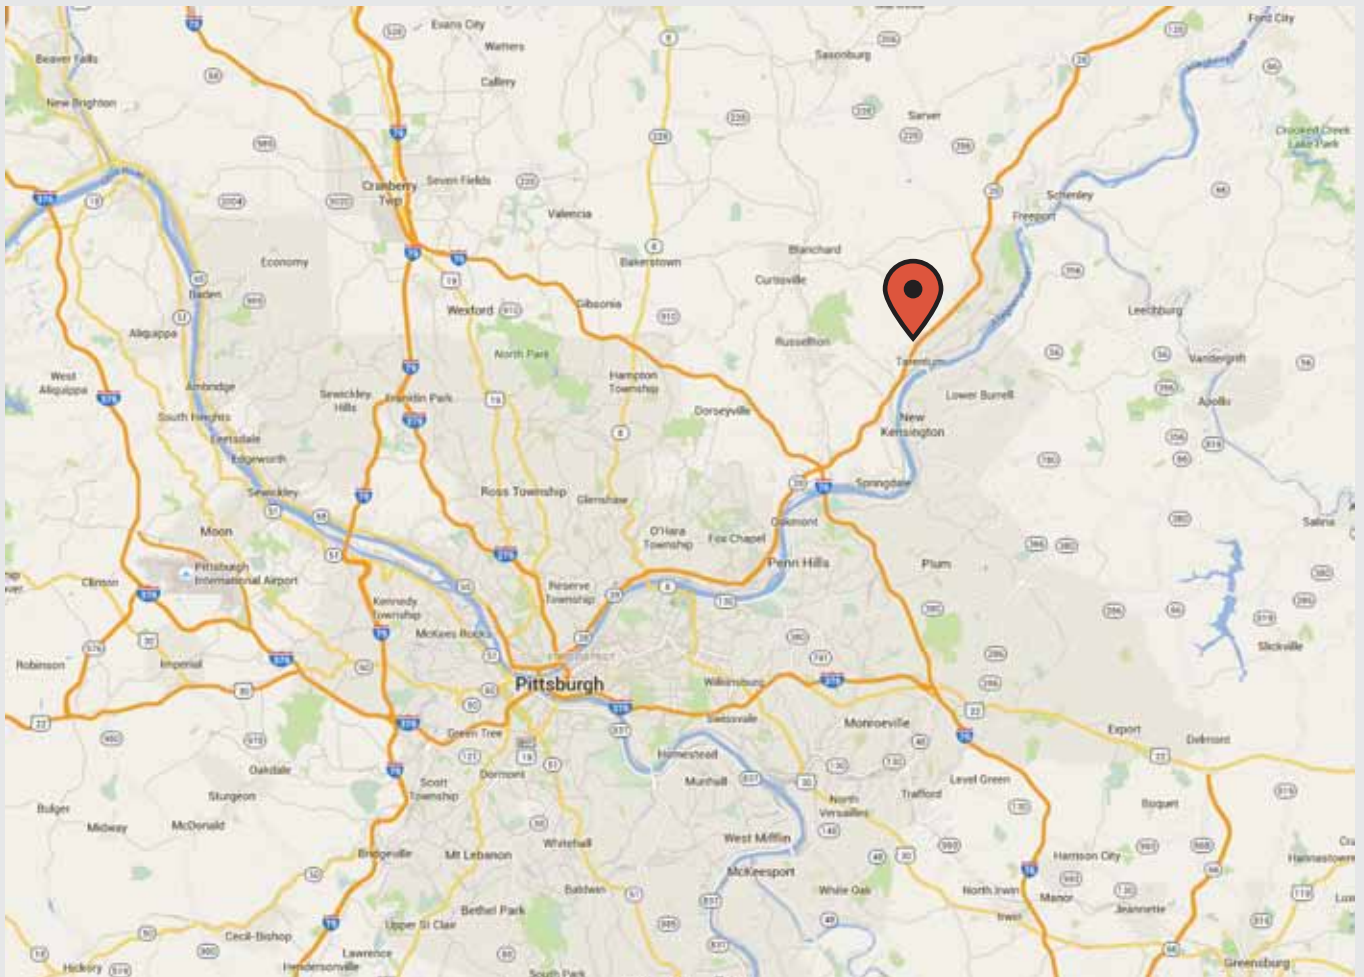

You have one chance to influence your target audience before competitors.

If you want to stand out above the rest, choose the company that can give you the advantage.

At Pepper Dog Productions, LLC we know that company is us. Here are a few highlights to show you why:

Pittsburgh's unique topography helps outdoor make an even greater impact. Because of the mountainous and winding terrain, outdoor ads boast a longer and more direct read on many of our units. Described by many as an aerial view of "a plate of spaghetti", Pittsburgh's exceptional geography allows for a step away from the typical city grid, and makes this unique and growing area a superb city to invest in outdoor.
